Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of five years. - The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
- The defendant shall not engage as an employee, consultant, whole or partial owner, volunteer, or in any capacity, in any business where he has custody, control or management of personal and/or financial information of other persons, such as loan applications, credit card applications, or similar documents, without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. This restriction does not encompass employment as a cashier or clerk who processes purchases made with debit cards and access devices. 7. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;
8. The defendant shall apply monies received from income tax refunds greater than $500, lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation;
9. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant;
10. The defendant shall participate for a period of 4 months in a home detention program which includes electronic monitoring and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall pay the costs of home confinement/electronic monitoring to the contract vendor, not to exceed the sum of $12.00 for each day of participation in the electronic monitoring, GPS, and/or voice recognition program. Defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $46,998.22, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663A, to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the Probation Office which this Court adopts and which reflects the Court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim.  The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victims. A partial payment of $2,000 shall be paid immediately. The balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.
